I Pentri “Kerres” Piediroso Campania

From the volcanic hills of Campania in central Italy comes the “Kerres” Piediroso by Campanian star producer I Pentri. Filled with deep red fruit, spice, smoke and savory elements over a balanced structure of zippy acidity and tannin, this red wine is a true reflection of the warm ashy terroir of Campania. For a limited time Benedetto is offering this rare and distinctive expression of Piediroso by both glass and bottle.

Fun fact: According to locals, Piediroso translates to “red feet,” because the red-tinted base of the vines are reminiscent of a pigeon’s legs.
